

USCCA DEFENSIVE SHOOTING FUNDAMENTALS CLASS

SATURDAY • NOVEMBER 19
1 PM - 4 PM

You have your Concealed Carry. Now what?..

In this instructor-led course, you're training for what could really happen and gaining the skills needed to survive a life-threatening attack. The fundamentals learned here can help to guide your mental and physical responses in a real-life self-defense situation.

Deep River is doing an "introductory" USCCA Defensive Shooting Fundamentals Class on November 19 @ 1 PM It's approx 3 hours and will be capped at 10 people.

This is a member/customer special one-time deal. These participants will be helping our Instructor Team to perfect the course material. This is a $150 Class that, for this event, will be $99.

This class is the foundation of armed self-defense training. Whether you want to reliably put rounds on target, or you're building your skills for rapid acquisition and engagement of multiple targets in a real-world scenario, you will find these skills and more in Defensive Shooting Fundamentals.

Call Deep River Sporting Clays at (919) 774-7080 to reserve a space.

"You become appropriately confident in your ability through realistic practice and evaluation. Being over- or under-confident in your defensive shooting ability can be catastrophic."
